

TB Suspect:

These animals test inconclusively positive to a caudal fold test (CFT) in the field. They are identified and quarantined on site, and they are either retested within 60 days (cranial cervical test or other assay) or they are sent to slaughter designated as “TB Suspect.”