

TB Exposed – Category 1:

These animals have been moved from an infected herd before the time the infection was disclosed, but after the herd apparently became infected (remember that this is a slowly progressing disease, so infection can occur well before it is identified by testing).