

TB Exposed – Category 2:

These animals are part of a known infected herd that have either tested negative for TB or are untested. If APHIS does not specify the TB exposed category of an animal, they are treated by IPP as Category 2. These animals may be sent to slaughter as individual culls, or they may be moved as part of the herd.